

You will read 3 chapters from Kiffe Kiffe Demain before every class and answer questions about them. Each day, one student will guide the question/answer session and discussion. You will be assessed on:

Preparation

You are ready to fully participate in the discussion

You have read the selection and answered the questions before class begins.

You have looked up words and cultural references to best understand the reading.

Speaking

You answer questions readily.

You ask additional questions.

You offer and ask for opinions.

Writing and Reading Comprehension

You have answered the questions with grammatically correct complete sentences.

(Your sheets will be collected at random intervals.)

On the day you lead the discussion, you have written out 5 to 10 additional questions ahead of time.

On the day you lead the discussion, you are an authority on the vocabulary and cultural references, so that you can answer students' questions if need be.

Listening

You are ready to answer questions that are not written.

You listen to others' comments and questions and react to them.
